An aerial photograph of a modern architectural complex, 'Edificio 2', situated on a lush green hillside. The building features a series of interconnected volumes with flat, dark roofs and light-colored, textured walls. Large glass windows and open-air terraces with outdoor furniture are visible. The property is surrounded by dense greenery and trees. In the background, a small town is visible on the hillside, and a large body of water (Lake Garda) stretches towards distant mountains under a clear sky.
